

we have listened to K-LOVE for years - first in California and now in Arizona. we listen to it almost the entire time that we are in the car and often at home, and benefit from it greatly. We would be extremely disappointed if K-LOVE were to be taken away. Our community needs quality Christian music programming.